

LM Elementary Parent Directory

Participation is Voluntary

Inclusion in the elementary parent directory is optional, and you can select the information you would like to share. Please complete and return to the elementary school office, even if you are opting out of sharing additional information. A directory will be given to each family in the elementary school in order to help facilitate parent connections regarding planning events, setting up playdates or carpooling, and more! We look forward to facilitating connections for your family! Please return this form by September 28.
